Langyi is a professional enterprise with a century-long history, dedicated to the research, development, manufacturing, and sales of trolleys and casters. The company adheres to the corporate positioning of "Leading the way in Motion" and focuses on providing high-quality, cost-effective solutions to meet the diverse needs of the global market. Our products include both standard and customized options, widely used in various fields such as home furnishings, healthcare, logistics, and industry. With the advantage of independent research and development and fully automated production equipment, we offer efficient, safe, and environmentally friendly products, aiming to lead the industry’ s development and become a leader in the field.